THE PORTICO LITERARY PRIZE 2010

Publishers are invited to submit fiction and non-fiction titles for this biennial literary prize worth around £8,000.

Entries must be published between 31 August 2008 and 31 August 2010. The book must be of general interest and literary merit, and set wholly or mainly in the Northern Counties of England.

The Judges will draw up a shortlist from each category (fiction/poetry and non-fiction), and choose a winner for the fiction prize and one for the non-fiction. There will be three Judges and their decision is final. They have the right to withhold the Prize and no correspondence will be entered into.

The Presentation will be made to the authors at a dinner in Manchester on 18th November 2010. We hope to make copies of the winning and short-listed books available for sale. All short-listed authors will be invited to attend the dinner.

Six copies (or sets of proofs) should be sent by the publishers as soon as possible, but not later than 31 August 2010, (in exceptional cases, later entries will be accepted), with the attached entry form to:
